

Topgolf Callaway Brands Launches Beginner-Friendly Golf Equipment Site, Topgolf Shop

The website features golf clubs, balls and accessories for beginner golfers

DALLAS, Oct. 3, 2024 /PRNewswire/ -- Topgolf and Topgolf Shop, geared toward providing beginners and off-course Players with a simple way to purchase entry-level golf equipment. The site marries Topgolf Callaway Brands' expertise in golf equipment with Topgolf's commitment to making the game more accessible and fun for beginner golfers.

"Making golf less hard and more fun for Players has always been the goal at Topgolf, and Callaway's expertise in the golf equipment space helps bring this to life for Players transitioning from the bay to the course for the first time," said Topgolf CEO Artie Starrs. "Launching Topgolf Shop is a no-brainer for our Players, and we are proud to exclusively bring them Callaway golf clubs and equipment through the Topgolf Shop."

With 3.4 million "first-time-on-course" golfers in 2023, only 25% of beginner golfers stayed in the game long-term according to the National Golf Foundation. Topgolf's internal research team conducted a comprehensive analysis of the needs and preferences of its Players, concluding that a large driver behind this is the difficulty in finding information and resources to purchase the right equipment. To address these challenges, Topgolf Shop is dedicated to providing accessible information and a curated selection of equipment to support new golfers in their journey.

"We are thrilled to support new golfers by providing high-quality equipment as they start their journey in golf," said President of Callaway Golf Glenn Hickey, "With Topgolf Shop, beginners can easily find the essential gear they need to confidently hit the course and enjoy the game."
